INTERNATIONAL MEETING FOR PRIESTS Rome, 9 -11 June 2010

“Fidelity of Christ, Fidelity of the Priest”

1 - INTRODUCTION

In occasion of the 150th anniversary of the “dies natalis” of John Mary Vianney, the patron saint of parish priests worldwide, Pope Benedict XVI inaugurated a “Year for Priests” in June. His Holiness described this year as a time for all priests to deepen their commitment to interior renewal for the sake of a more forceful and incisive witness to the Gospel in today’s world.

The “Year for Priests” will conclude in 2010 with the International Meeting of Priests that has the theme “Fidelity of Christ, Fidelity of the Priest.”

This Meeting that will include moments of prayer, reflection and sharing, as well as an audience with His Holiness in St. Peter’s Square, will be developed alongside the religious-cultural itineraries of Christian Rome.

Promoted by Congregation for the Clergy, the Meeting of Priests’ technical-logistical organization has been assigned to Opera Romana Pellegrinaggi (ORP), which has from 1996 handled all the other International Meeting of Priests, such as Fatima [Portugal], Yamoussoukro [Ivory Coast]. Guadalupe [Mexico], Nazareth, Bethlehem and Jerusalem [Holy Land], Rome [2000 Jubilee Year] and lastly Malta.

ORP will be pleased to count on your presence for this upcoming International Meeting of Priests as we believe that “walking together” in Christian Rome will help to make this experience more significant, stronger and profound.
